

LESSON OVERVIEW

Big Idea: We should have big faith because we serve a big God.

Key Question: What has God done in your life to make your faith bigger?

Memory Verse: Be on guard. Stand firm in the faith. Be courageous. Be strong. 1 Corinthians 16:13

Overview: This is one of the most famous stories in the Bible. Three friends with really weird names (Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego) had big faith and stood up for God. They lived in a place called Babylon, a place that didn't worship God. In fact, the king of Babylon created a huge gold statue, taller than a big tree, and told everyone to worship it. Any time music played, everyone had to stop what they were doing to bow down to this gold statue. Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego knew the real God, the one we talk about in church every week. They knew that this gold statue was nothing and they decided to disobey the king and not bow to the statue. So, the king called them in and said, "If you don't bow down, I will throw you in the big fire and you'll die." They still refused and said, "We believe in the real God. He is who we bow to. You can throw us in the fire, but our God will save us." The three friends had big faith in God. And when they were thrown in the fire, God saved them from being hurt. At the end of the story, everyone realized that their God was a big God - the only one worth worshipping.

TEACHER TIPS

Allow each kid to share. The point: get kids thinking about what it takes to be brave. Be prepared with your own story to help get the conversation started.

Answer: In big church we call this developing your own personal "conviction". Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego could see what God had done for them: he made them smart and strong, gave them a great job, and answered their prayers (Daniel 2). Help the kids make their own list of God's blessings in their lives. Have them include things like their home, parents and siblings, food to eat, school and teachers, and even specific answers to prayer. Our faith in God grows when we realize all that He has done for us.

Remind the kids that God doesn't always answer all of our prayers the way we want him to, and that's not a reason to stop believing in him. The three friends had big faith because they knew that God alone was God, no matter what happened.

Option #1*Smoking Hot Potato Game

A great game for a quizzing kids on what they remember about the story. Have kids stand in a circle. Give the ball to one kid. They toss it to someone else in the circle.

After every third toss, whoever has the ball must answer a question. If they get it right, they toss the ball to another person. If they get it wrong, they have to sit down. Last one standing wins!

Questions:

1. What's the Big Idea today? (We should have big faith....we serve a big God)
2. What are the names of our Bible heros today? (Shadrach, Meshach, Abednego)
3. What was the king asking them to do? (bow to a golden statue)
4. What did the 3 friends say? (no, we only bow to God)
5. What did the king do? (threw them in the furnace/fire)

Option #2*Big Faith Jeopardy

A great game patterned after a classic game show to test knowledge and speed. Divide the class into 2 teams Each team gets a bell. After the question is read, teams have to hit their bell to answer the question. The team who rings first, gets the first chance to answer. Every correct answer gets one point. If a team rings first but gets it wrong, the other team can steal. A correct answer on a steal earns the team a bonus point.
