

LESSON OVERVIEW

Big Idea: Our God is the only real God in the whole universe.

Key Question: How can we worship the one true God?

Memory Verse: ...the Lord is the everlasting God, the creator of all the earth. Isaiah 40:28

Overview: Elijah was a brave and faithful guy. He was a prophet of God in charge of bringing the Israelites (God's people) back to God. The people had forgotten all about what God had done for them and were living like people who didn't know God at all. They were even worshiping other fake "gods" that people had made up. God wanted to get their attention to remind them that He is the only true God, the Creator of all things. So Elijah put on a contest. He challenged the people to a duel, their god against Elijah's God. The contest would show who the real God was. The people prayed to their gods and Elijah prayed to God. Only Elijah's God showed up, proving that He is the real God. The Israelites realized that they had been worshiping the wrong things and turned back to Him.

TEACHER TIPS

Allow each child to share. Be prepared with your own story to help get the conversation started.

Answer: Worship is all about giving God the respect and adoration He deserves. To keep it simple for the kids, explain that there are two great ways to "worship" God:

1. Singing. Help the kids connect the idea of worship to singing songs about how great God is - which is what we do every week in Kids Church.
2. Obeying. Worship isn't just about how we sing. It's also about how we live. For kids, the simplest way for them to understand this is with the word "obedience". When kids obey God, they are showing with their actions that they love God.

Bonus Questions:

K-st: What is your favorite worship song we sing in Kids Church? What are some ways we can obey God?

2nd-5th: Do you think worship is just for God or does it benefit us as well? How? Why does the way we live matter to God?

The answer is obvious in the story, but let the kids say it out loud. Remind them that the false gods didn't do anything, even though 450 prophets prayed and prayed to them. (That's because false gods aren't gods at all. It's like praying to a piece of wood or a toy!)

Many kids will share that they would have cheered with the people because of what God did. That's a lot like what we do when we worship God with singing.

Option #1*Light the Fire Tic Tac Toe

Teams race to beat the other team(s) in getting 3 across. Tape a tic tac toe on the floor using masking tape or write on the whiteboard. Divide the class into two teams. The teacher will ask a question, the first team to ring in gets to answer. If correct, the team gets to place their marker on the board. Teams go back and forth until someone gets 3 across and wins the board.

Questions:

1. The name of the Bible hero from today's story (Elijah)
2. Was he a prophet or a judge? (prophet)
3. What was the name of the people to whom Elijah was a prophet? (Israelites)
4. What's the Big Idea today? (Our God is the only real God in the whole universe)
5. What's the Key Question today? (How can we worship the one true God)
6. On what mountain did Elijah hold the contest? (Mt. Carmel)
7. What did Elijah challenge the little gods to do? (light a fire)
8. Who won the contest? (God)
9. From what book in the Bible is our memory verse? (Isaiah)
10. Is the story of Elijah from the Old or New testament? (Old)

Supplies needed

- ringers
- white board
- dry erase markers (2 colors)

Bonus Activity:

Play the Telephone game. (Have kids sit in a circle and whisper the word in one kid's ear. Then that kid tells their neighbor and so on).

Words:

Mt Carmel, Israelites

Option #2*Around Mt. Carmel

The game plays like Around the World. Have kids stand in a circle with one ball. Throw the ball to a child who then has to answer a question from the lesson. If they answer correctly, they throw the ball to another player. If they get it wrong, they have to sit down. Play until only one kid is left standing or run out of questions.

Questions:

1. The name of the Bible hero from today's story (Elijah)
2. Was he a prophet or a judge? (prophet)
3. What was the name of the people to whom Elijah was a prophet? (Israelites)
